

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

COASTAL CORPORATION LTD.

Plaintiff(s),

v.

HARVEST KING TRADING USA,
LIMITED, et al.

Defendant(s).

2:22-cv-02687-DSF-JEM

STANDING ORDER
FOR CASES ASSIGNED TO JUDGE DALE S. FISCHER

READ THIS ORDER CAREFULLY. IT CONTROLS THIS CASE AND DIFFERS IN SOME RESPECTS FROM THE LOCAL RULES.

Counsel for plaintiff must immediately serve this order on all parties, including any new parties to the action. If this case was removed from state court, the defendant that removed the case shall serve this Order on all other parties.

Plaintiffs who have electronically filed a complaint are ordered to provide a paper copy of the conformed complaint to Judge Fischer's mailbox on the Fourth Floor of the First Street Courthouse.

Counsel must advise the Court immediately if the case or any pending matter has been resolved.

All counsel who appear in this action must immediately review and comply with the Civility and Professionalism Guidelines that appear on the Court's website under Attorney Information. Failure to do so may result in sanctions.

1. Presence of Lead Counsel

Lead trial counsel must attend any proceeding set by this Court, including all scheduling, pretrial, and settlement conferences. Only ONE attorney for a party may be designated as lead trial counsel unless otherwise permitted by the Court. Counsel should not claim to be co-lead trial counsel for the purpose of of avoiding this requirement. If counsel purport to be co-lead trial counsel, both must attend the pretrial conference. Unless lead trial counsel's absence is excused by the Court for good cause in advance of the hearing, or is due to an emergency that prevented prior notice, the Court reserves the right to designate the attorney handling such proceeding as lead counsel for all purposes. Failure of lead counsel to appear will be grounds for sanctions.

2. Discovery

All discovery matters are referred to the assigned magistrate judge. All discovery documents must include the words "DISCOVERY MATTER" in the caption to ensure proper routing. Counsel should not deliver Chambers copies of these documents to Judge Fischer.

Proposed protective orders pertaining to discovery must be submitted to the assigned magistrate judge. Proposed protective orders should not purport to allow, without further order of Judge Fischer, the filing under seal of pleadings or documents filed in connection with a dispositive motion (including a class certification motion) or trial before Judge Fischer. The existence of a protective order does not alone justify the filing of pleadings or other documents under seal, in whole or in part.

3. Filing Requirements

a. Documents with Declarations, Exhibits, and Other Attachments

If a filed or lodged document has declarations, exhibits, or other attachments, each of these must be filed as a separately docketed attachment to the main docket entry with a description of the attachment (e.g., Dkt. 29-1 Smith Declaration, 29-2 Ex.2 - License Agreement, 29-3 Request for Judicial Notice).

b. Proposed Orders

Proposed orders should not contain attorney names, addresses, etc. on the caption page, should not contain a footer with the document name or other information, and should not contain a watermark or designation of the firm name, etc. in the margin. Proposed orders must have Judge Fischer's name spelled correctly and her correct title: United States District Judge. Documents that do not meet this requirement may be stricken.

c. Mandatory Paper Chambers Copies

Documents will not be considered until paper Chambers copies are submitted, so paper Chambers copies of all documents for which priority processing is requested should be submitted on the same day as the filing. Paper Chambers copies should not require the signature of the recipient.

The Court requires paper Chambers copies of only the following: Initial pleadings (notices of removal and related documents, complaints, counterclaims, cross claims, and answers); Joint Rule 26(f) Reports, motion papers, including motions in limine (motions, oppositions, replies, and related documents); ex parte applications for temporary restraining orders; and all pre-trial documents (memoranda of fact and law, witness and exhibit lists, pretrial conference statement, jury instructions, verdict forms, etc.).

All exhibits must be separated by a tab divider on the right or bottom of the document. If documentary evidence in support of or in opposition to a motion exceeds 50 pages, the Chambers copy must be in a separately tabbed binder and include a Table of Contents. If such evidence exceeds 200 pages, the Chambers copy of such evidence, including a Table of Contents, must be placed in a Slant D-Ring binder with each item of evidence separated by a tab divider on the right or the bottom. All documents contained in the binder must be three-hole punched with the oversized 13/32" hole size, not the standard 9/32" hole size. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the Court striking the motion or declining to consider the exhibits.

4. Motions - General Requirements

a. Time for Filing and Hearing Motions

This Court hears civil motions on Mondays, beginning at 1:30 p.m. If Monday is a court holiday, motions will be heard on the next Monday. If the motion date selected is not available, the Court will issue a minute order continuing the date. Opposition papers due on a Monday holiday may be filed the following Tuesday. In such cases, reply papers may be filed on the next Tuesday.

Adherence to the timing requirements is mandatory for Chambers' preparation of motion matters. The parties may stipulate to a different briefing schedule, so long as the schedule provides at least two weeks between the filing of the reply and the hearing date.

If the parties are able to resolve the issue, or if a party intends to withdraw or declines to oppose a motion, the Court must be notified as soon as possible, but no later than seven days before the hearing date. Failure to oppose a motion will likely result in the motion being granted immediately after the opposition would have been due.

b. Pre-filing Requirement

Counsel must comply with Local Rule 7-3, which requires counsel to engage in a pre-filing conference "to discuss thoroughly . . . the substance of the contemplated motion and any potential resolution." Counsel should discuss the issues to a sufficient degree that if a motion is still necessary, the briefing may be directed to those substantive issues requiring resolution by the Court. The pro per status of one or more parties does not eliminate this requirement. Failure to comply with this Rule will be grounds for sanctions. If fault is attributed to the moving party, the Court may decline to hear the motion.

c. Length and Format of Motion Papers

Memoranda of points and authorities in support of or in opposition to motions shall not exceed 25 pages. Replies shall not exceed 12 pages. Only in rare instances and for good cause shown will the Court grant an application to extend these page limitations.

d. Citations to Authority

Citations to case law must identify not only the case cited, but the specific page referenced. When citing to legal databases (which is not encouraged), whenever possible cite to Westlaw rather than Lexis.

Statutory references should cite to the United States Code and not solely a section of a particular act. Citations to treatises, manuals, and other materials should include the volume, section, and relevant pages. If these are not readily accessible, copies should be attached. This is especially important for historical materials, e.g., older legislative history.

Citations that support a statement in the main text must be included in the main text, not in footnotes. String cites are discouraged and generally are not helpful.

5. Specific Motion Requirements

a. Motions Pursuant to Rule 12

Motions to dismiss are strongly discouraged. Many motions to dismiss or to strike can be avoided if the parties confer in good faith (as required by Local Rule 7-3), especially for perceived defects in a complaint, answer, or counterclaim that could be corrected by amendment. See Chang v. Chen, 80 F.3d 1293, 1296 (9th Cir. 1996) (where a motion to dismiss is granted, a district court should provide leave to amend unless it is clear that the complaint could not be saved by any amendment).

If the Court grants a motion to dismiss with leave to amend, the plaintiff must file an amended complaint within the time period specified by the Court. A “redlined” version of the amended complaint must be delivered to Chambers and Chambers email indicating all additions and deletions to the prior version of the complaint. Failure to file an amended complaint within the time allotted will result in dismissal of the action or the relevant claim(s) with prejudice.

b. Motions to Amend Pleadings

The motion must state the effect of the amendment, and must state the page, line numbers and wording of any proposed change or addition of material. A “redlined” version of the proposed amended complaint must be delivered to Chambers (in paper form) and to Chambers email indicating all additions and deletions to the prior version of the pleading. In addition to the requirements of the Local Rules, all amended pleadings must be serially numbered to differentiate the amendment from previous amendments.

c. Motions for Summary Judgment

Please refer to Judge Fischer’s Standing Order re Motions for Summary Judgment at www.cacd.uscourts.gov.

6. Telephonic Hearings

The Court is unlikely to agree to a telephonic appearance in the absence of extraordinary circumstances preventing counsel from appearing in person.

7. Ex Parte Applications (Including Applications for Temporary Restraining Orders)

In addition to the requirements of Local Rule 7-19, the moving party must notify the opposition that opposing papers are to be filed no later than 48 hours (or two court days) following such service. The Court generally will not rule on any application for such relief for at least 48 hours (or two court days) after the party subject to the requested order has been served, unless service is excused. Opposing counsel should advise the courtroom deputy clerk as soon as possible whether the opposing party intends to oppose the ex parte application. The Court considers ex parte applications on the papers and usually does not set these matters for hearing. The application will not be considered until a mandatory chambers copy has been provided. Sanctions may be imposed for misuse of ex parte applications.

8. Applications or Stipulations For Extension of Time

No stipulation extending the time to file any required document or to continue any date is effective until and unless the Court approves it, or unless the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide for an automatic extension. Both applications and stipulations must set forth:

1. The existing due date or hearing date, the discovery cut-off date, the last day for hearing motions, the pretrial conference date and trial date;
2. Specific reasons (contained in a detailed declaration) supporting good cause for granting the extension or continuance. (A statement that an extension “will promote settlement” is insufficient. The requesting party or parties must indicate the status of ongoing settlement negotiations. The possibility of settlement ordinarily will not be grounds for continuance.);
3. Whether there have been prior requests for extensions, and whether these requests were granted or denied by the Court; and

4. A description of the diligence of the party seeking the continuance and any prejudice that may result if the continuance is denied.

The request must be made before the date to be continued. The Court grants continuances only on a showing of good cause. Failure to comply with the Local Rules and this Order will result in rejection of the request without further notice to the parties.

9. Cases Removed From State Court

If a motion was pending in state court before the case was removed, it must be re-noticed in accordance with Local Rule 7. If a removed action contains a “form pleading” i.e. a pleading in which boxes are checked, the party or parties that filed the form pleading must file an appropriate pleading with this Court within 30 days of receipt of the notice of removal.

10. Class Actions

If this action is a putative class action, the parties are to act diligently and begin discovery immediately, so that the motion for class certification can be filed expeditiously. The motion must be filed no later than 120 days from the date initially set for the scheduling conference, without regard to any continuances, unless the Court orders otherwise.

11. Status of Fictitiously Named Defendants

This Court adheres to the following procedures when a complaint with fictitiously named defendants is removed to this Court on diversity grounds. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441(a) and 1447.

1. Plaintiff must ascertain the identity of and serve any fictitiously named defendants before the date of the Rule 16(b) scheduling conference. The Court generally will dismiss Doe defendants on the date of the scheduling conference, as they prevent the Court from accurately tracking its cases.
2. If plaintiff believes (by reason of the necessity for discovery or otherwise) that all fictitiously named defendants cannot be identified within that period, a request to extend the time must be made in the Joint Rule 26 Report. Counsel should be prepared to state the reasons why fictitiously named defendants have not been identified and served.
3. If a plaintiff wants to substitute a defendant for one of the fictitiously named defendants, plaintiff must first seek the consent of counsel for all defendants (and counsel for the fictitiously named party, if that party has separate counsel). If consent is withheld or denied, plaintiff should file a motion on regular notice. The motion and opposition should address whether the matter should thereafter be remanded to the superior court if diversity is destroyed by the addition of the newly substituted party. See 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c) and (e).

12. ERISA Cases Concerning Benefit Claims

The Court will hear motions to determine the standard of review, whether discovery will be permitted, and the scope of the administrative record. There will be a court trial (usually confined to oral argument) on the administrative record.

Counsel are discouraged from filing motions for summary judgment or partial summary judgment on any other issue. If they choose to do so, they must distinguish Kearney v. Standard Insurance Co., 175 F.3d 1084, 1095 (9th Cir. 1999) in the moving papers and explain why summary judgment is not precluded.

13. Bankruptcy Appeals

Counsel must comply with the Notice Regarding Appeal from Bankruptcy Court issued at the time the appeal is filed in the district court. The matter is deemed under submission on the filing of the appellant's reply brief. The Court considers bankruptcy appeals on the papers and usually does not set these matters for hearing.

14. Communications with Chambers

Counsel must not attempt to contact the Court or its Chambers staff by telephone or by any other ex parte means unless contact has been first initiated by Chambers staff. Counsel may contact the courtroom deputy clerk with appropriate inquiries. The preferred method of communications with the courtroom deputy clerk is email. To facilitate communication with the courtroom deputy clerk, counsel should list their e-mail addresses along with their telephone numbers on all papers.

15. Parties Appearing in Propria Persona

Pro per litigants are required to comply with all local rules, including Local Rule 16. In this Order, the term “counsel” includes parties appearing in propria persona. Only individuals may represent themselves.

16. “Notice of Unavailability”

While the Court expects that counsel will conduct themselves appropriately and will not deliberately schedule Court or other proceedings when opposing counsel are unavailable, a “Notice of Unavailability” has no force or effect in this Court and should not be filed. The filing of such a documents may result in sanctions.

17. “Consent to Magistrate Judge

The parties may consent to have a United States Magistrate Judge preside over the entire case, including trial. The parties are free to select from among all magistrate judges available for this purpose, not just the magistrate judge assigned to this case. Please consult the court's website for the list of available magistrate judges.

CAVEAT: If counsel fail to file the required Joint Rule 26(f) Report, or the required pretrial documents, or if counsel fail to appear at the scheduling conference, the pretrial conference, or any other proceeding scheduled by the Court, and such failure is not satisfactorily explained to the Court: (1) the cause will be dismissed for failure to prosecute, if the failure occurs on the part of the plaintiff, (2) the answer will be stricken and default (and thereafter default judgment) will be entered if such failure occurs on the part of the defendant, or (3) the Court may take such action as it deems appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
